

I am OPPOSED to allowing further consolidation in the ownership of radio and television stations. By having fewer different voices controlling media in this country, you will be limiting Americans ability to hear uncensored, unbiased news.